A Tribute To James M. Ewing

President D.S.C. (1956-1971)

During Dr. Ewing's tenure of office from Sept. 1, 1956 to May of 1971, Delta State College has expanded beyond its original purpose of Teacher Preparation to become one of the foremost colleges in the state. Under Dr. Ewing, Delta State has been called "Mississippi's most rapidly growing Liberal Arts Institution," and as "the center of higher education in the delta." Since assuming his role as Third President of the college Delta State's enrollment has increased from 527 in 1956 to 3,039 students in 1971 with a total of 5,111 degrees being awarded, of these, 316 being M.S. degrees. More than 15 million dollars has been spent on campus improvements and a 2 million dollar Student Union Building is now in the process of becoming a reality at his designation. To enumerate all the achievements of Dr. Ewing would entail a long list indeed. Instead, let it suffice to say that Delta State today is living proof of the dedication shown by the man foremost with the Statesman's well-being in mind, and that man is James M. Ewing.

Rear Admiral Alan P. Shepard presents Delta State with a souvenir of his latest Lunar Expedition.

"We Can Do It Here!"

Shortly after Dr. Aubrey K. Lucas took office as the fourth President of Delta State College, the faculty and administration realized that a new era in DSC's history had been ushered in. Lucas quickly became known as an academic leader as well as an administrative leader, a man who follows intellectual pursuits, and challenges the faculty to do likewise.

Just what kind of man is Dr. Lucas?

An educator. A 37-year-old father of four. An intellectual. An administrator whose warm, sympathetic attitude makes him popular with the students. Perhaps the best way to understand Dr. Aubrey K. Lucas is to review a sampling of his ideas:

On education: "I should like for all of us to reaffirm our belief in learning and the search for truth as the primary reasons for our existence." Lucas does not believe, however, in a random approach to education. "If we are to do more than pay lip service to effective teaching, we must design some strategies for achieving it."

One of Dr. Lucas' strategies for achieving more effective education is the "wider-campus" concept. This involves the basic goal of "reaching out into the community and serving others besides those who just register for courses . . . In this community where learning is primary, we shall judge our actions and plans by the question: 'Does it promote or enhance learning?'"

How does a man like Lucas see the office of college president? "I see the President of the college as the 'man of the moment' — one who meets the needs of administration as they come up . . . It is not the role of the President to make every decision in an institution of higher learning." Indeed, Dr. Lucas believes in involving all members of the college community in the development of a better DSC. "I want to see an undergraduate institution that is so strong in terms of outstanding faculty, facilities, and resources that the people of Mississippi will be scrambling to get their sons and daughters in this institution . . . Then I want to see this college become a beehive of activity in the evenings, and weekends involving our people in what I call 'continuing education' . . . With leisure time expanding, I want to see the people turn toward us for development of their vocational interests — music, art, or whatever . . . WE CAN DO IT HERE!"

" _____ " to you, buddy!

"You'll pay for that!"

"Smack!"

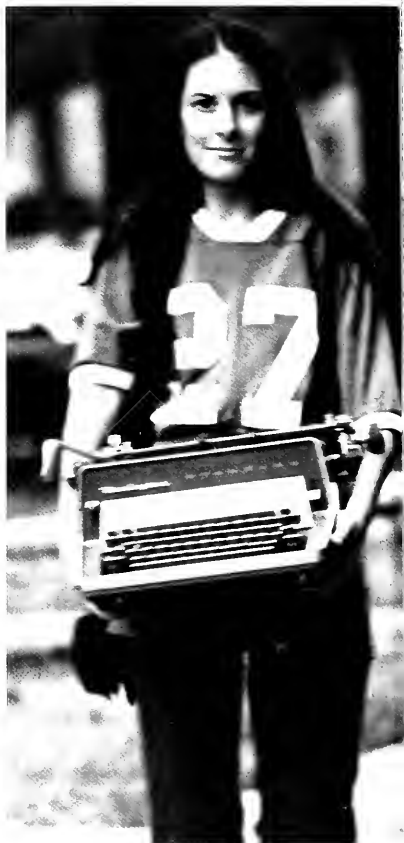

Pep rallies brought us all together.

"It's not that I don't love you,
I just don't like the way you play Touch!"

"According to the Manual, you grab it with both hands and push . . ."

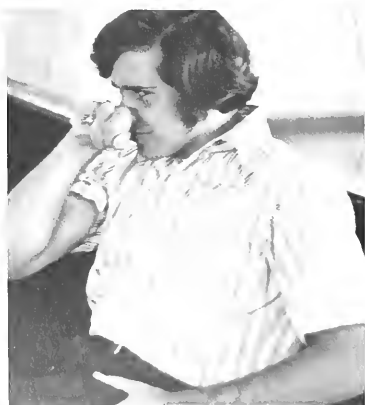

"Taking it easy"

"Hey, is this thing on?"

"Loyal fans on a miserable day"

"Now, if someone will just get the scalpel out of my hand . . ."

"OOPS"

DESIDERATA

Go placidly amid the noise and haste, and remember what peace there may be in silence. As far as possible without surrender be on good terms with all persons. Speak your truth quietly and clearly; and listen to others, even the dull and ignorant; they too have their story. ~ Avoid loud and aggressive persons, they are vexations to the spirit. If you compare yourself with others, you may become vain and bitter; for always there will be greater and lesser persons than yourself. Enjoy your achievements as well as your plans. ~ Keep interested in your own career, however humble; it is a real possession in the changing fortunes of time. Exercise caution in your business affairs; for the world is full of trickery. But let this not blind you to what virtue there is; many persons strive for high ideals; and everywhere life is full of heroism. ~ Be yourself. Especially do not feign affection. Neither be cynical about love; for in the face of all aridity and disenchantment it is perennial as the grass. ~ Take kindly the counsel of the years, gracefully surrendering the things of youth. Nurture strength of spirit to shield you in sudden misfortune. But do not distress yourself with imaginings. Many fears are born of fatigue and loneliness. Beyond a wholesome discipline, be gentle with yourself. ~ You are a child of the universe, no less than the trees and the stars; you have a right to be here. And whether or not it is clear to you, no doubt the universe is unfolding as it should. ~ Therefore be at peace with God, whatever you conceive Him to be, and whatever your labors and aspirations, in the noisy confusion of life keep peace with your soul. ~ With all its sham, drudgery and broken dreams, it is still a beautiful world. Be careful. Strive to be happy. ~ ~

Those that survived,

*Yesterday I dreamed of tomorrow
But yesterday's tomorrow is here
Breathing against the shackles of my mind
Faces reminding me of some faded thought
Beginning and ending in obscurity Crowded sidewalks filled with endless streams of humanity —
Drowning rain slapping my face
Every step slipping into some swamp —
Safe again in the prison of a room
Where a chair trapped me into listening
To words that faded no sooner than said.*

*To be free, alive, where yesterday
Is just a dream
And tomorrow is hope for lost Eden.
Oh, the memories of some forgotten Troy
That bring back too many crowded moments
Hours of nothing, seconds of everything.
Freedom to think, but not to believe
Freedom to experience, but not to enjoy.
The restless pulse of life flowing
With Time weaving some mysterious pattern.
A heart searching for that fleeting second,
For that one special love that makes
The rest of life seem to be standing still
How is it joy is measured by sorrow?
What is that special king of loving? Living.*

The Tri-Deltas had a successful year with both their group efforts and individual achievement. Phi Phi Chapter boasts of members actively serving in the Senate, student-faculty committees, the SGA and several honorary fraternities. Tri-Delta is proud to acknowledge the acceptance of the scholarship trophy eleven out of thirteen times and also Phi Phi Chapter is very proud of the Gracious Living Award received at the National Convention this year. Tri-Delta participated in Circle K Sing Night and placed third in the Homecoming Display Competition.

Tri-Delta names can be found on the President's List and the Dean's List. Also, Tri-Delta names are included on the Faculty Scholar's List. Two Tri-Deltas were included in the Top Ten Beauties, Jacqueline Alford and Maronda Lee. Maronda Lee was crowned Most Beautiful Coe at DSC. Among Campus Favorites were Linda Box, Faye Kent, Jacqueline Alford, Nena Jennings, Maronda Lee, and Kathleen Aguzzi. Those named to WHO'S WHO were Nena, Maronda, Jacqueline, and Donna Weatherall. Faye Kent is a varsity cheerleader. Jacqueline, Faye, and Nena were members of the Homecoming court. Pi Kappa Alpha chose Linda Box to be a member of the Dream Girl Court and Stephanie Puckett was named Phi Kappa Tau Pledge Class Sweetheart. Jacqueline is the reigning Greek Week Queen and Tri-Delta also captured the Greek Week trophy.

The Tri-Delta's award a deserving coed a scholarship each year through the profits made from the annual Talent Show. They enjoy swaps, formal, and midnight pranks. Working together Tri-Delta's are building a sisterhood their predecessors and successors will be proud to claim.

Kappa Delta is more than white roses and diamond shields, candlights, pledge pins. A wide variety of individual personalities forms a group of sisters sharing with each other in the bonds of Kappa Delta.

Since Gamma Psi Chapter's founding in 1962, KD has proved outstanding not only in campus affairs, but in service projects. Each year KD's participate in the Easter Seal Drive, Thanksgiving food collections and a Santa party for the underprivileged.

A Faculty-Alumnae Tea, an annual KD — Tri-Delt birthday party, Open house, a Mother-Daughter Tea, a formal and an informal party, and several swaps constitute most of our social events.

Who are KD's? A Homecoming queen who is a cheerleader and 'M' Club sweetheart; two favorites; the Women's Judiciary Council president; Phi Kappa Tau Sweetheart and a Little Sister; two SGA officers; four in Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities; Senators; two Miss Delta alternates; Phi Mu Alpha Sinfonia Sweetheart; two class officers; and numerous members of varied honoraries.

Who are KD's? B. C. Jan, the Keeper of the Kitchen, and Noodle; a treasurer who can pogo "no hands"; "Brains" Bennett the Superstar and her little red-headed friend; a rush chairman whose dog holds a 100% class attendance record; Daggerman Tommy's Boss, Mar; Hillbilly Stompers (who are rightly proud).

Founded on March 17, 1906, Phi Kappa Tau fraternity has since grown to be the eleventh largest national fraternity. The local chapter was chartered in 1968.

The social activities include: Christmas and Homecoming parties, swaps, banquets, and Red Carnation Ball. Through a purposeful effort the fraternity has tried to give its membership the ideals of scholarship and leadership. The Phi Kappa Tau's have assisted in the promotion and achievement of leadership at Delta State.

The Zeta Beta chapter of Pi Kappa Alpha Fraternity was founded at Delta State on December 15, 1963, and since that time has progressed into one of the most outstanding on campus. Essentially, a Southern fraternity, being founded at the University of Virginia by six confederate soldiers. Pi Kappa Alpha is now one of the three largest fraternities in the country.

Zeta Beta achievement is evidenced by its representation in all phases of campus activity. Several Pikes hold membership in such organizations as the Senate and Delta Singers. Billy LaForge was named to the Faculty Scholars and was elected the President of the S. G. A. while Eddie Hall was elected Senior Class president. Pikes also have members in the ODK.

Pi Kappa Alpha emphasizes activity, scholarship and promote leadership and brotherhood for all its members.

Iota Kappa Chi fraternity was organized in 1968 "to maintain high academic, cultural, moral, spiritual, and social standards." This fraternity tries to cultivate a brotherly love, cultural perfection and peaceful co-existence here at Delta State through the workings of their chapter. All are believers in the brotherly love premises established by the late Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. and work, play, and strive to promote their ideals here on campus.

Track

Track for Delta State was winning five out of nine meets the Statesmen attended. Track high jumper Walton Curry winning the NAIA high jump championship. Seven School records broken, and one tied.

Delta State won the Mississippi Intercollegiate meet in Jackson, the Mississippi College Invitational, the Delta Relays, a triangular meet on the home track and the Mississippi Valley State College Invitational.

The Statesmen dropped a dual meet to Southeastern Louisiana, came in second at a triangular meet at Arkansas A&M and pulled a second place from a field of six teams competing in the Selma Invitational.

Curry, going over the bar backwards, used the "Fosbury flop" method to clear seven feet and move closer to a place as a high jumper on the Olympic track team.

Randall Huffman, clearing 15' 2¼", set a new school pole vault record. Jamie Cox took the school 220-yard dash with a 9.5 time. Tommy Worthy, running a 47.8 blast, sacked the 440-yard dash record.

Wayne Parker ran a 14.6 120-yard high hurdles to tie the school record set in 1969 by George Pell. George Morris, breaking the ribbon at 53.2, set a new school record for the 440-yard intermediate hurdles.

The 440-yard relay team, manned by Jamie Cox, Skip Burlison, Paul Van Cleave and Mike Ray, rounded the track for a school record of 42.2.

The mile relay team, Mike Ray, Jim Bourke, George Morris and Tommy Worthy, rewrote the school record with a 3:16.9 time.

Tennis

Cheerleader Ted DeWease with squad.

Tennis for Delta State was an 8-6 record. David Thomas taking the championship in the number six slot in state standings. Mark Foster and Baird Montgomery taking the state championship in the number three slot in the state doubles standings.

The Statesmen, playing twice as many games as they had played the year before, probably reached the high point of the year when they tied Ole Miss for third place at the Mississippi Invitational Tournament.

Thomas finished the season with an 11-2 record on his singles matches. The Foster-Montgomery team finished regular season play with a clean 14-0 campaign and lost only one match in tournament action.

Cannon scores with a quarterback sneak against Samford.

"Poison's not the answer, Coach!"

Head Coach Horace McCool

ASSISTANT COACHES:

Front Row — Robert McGraw, Don Skelton

Second Row — Vince Thompson, Tommy Crenshaw, Laurin Collins, Jerry Johnson

MANAGERS:

Left to Right: Edward Hendricks, Tommy Naron, Allen Barrett, Andy Bryant

A time for conquest and acceptance . . .
 Offense, defense. The struggle to keep alive.
 We came; we watched; we cheered;
 We looked away.

A time for mobilization of the spirit . . .
 The will to win,
 The test to win a greater victory,
 Bigger than the one before.

A time for courage . . .
 To push beyond the possible,
 To admit defeat and victory
 On equal ground.

A time for men . . .
 The team, the battle, reality.
 Points to go; seconds left.
 Blood, guts, brains?

A time for people . . .
 One, all, part
 Yelling, crying, boozing,
 Rallying for one moment,
 Showing apathy the next.

Alicia Hensley

This is known as catching Hell from all sides!

Some of us cheered . . .

We watched?

A lot of us came to the games.

I do my thing, and you do your thing.
I am not in this world to live up to your expectations.
And you are not in this world to live up to mine.
You are you and I am I,
And if by chance we find each other,
It's beautiful.

It all began with the day that we first realized that we were no longer alone.

Decisions crowded
every moment.

In school elections,
we grasped school traditions and prepared to face tomorrow.

But, with the dawn came hope.

The joy of being with people filled
each day.

And somewhere amid the noise and haste of daily living, we found time to care.

Homer Michael Leggett
Edward R. Green, Jr.

George C. Johnson
Norman Anthony Ruthledge

"Dedicated In Their Memory"

Sudden loss

Like molten lava

Has wiped out what I love.

Grief has no words to pray

And yet I seek out God in prayer,

For there is hope only in Him.

In His presence

I plant my tiny mustard seed of faith

In grief's volcanic soil

And leave it in His loving care.

BRANCH OF GRENADA BANK

CLEVELAND, MISS.

Dear Students and Faculty:

We are involved in a great change, a change that is affecting our world, our nation, and most of all our state. We think it is a change for the better.

Mississippi is a state that is reflecting our common desires of improvement of life, environment, and association with our fellow man. The fulfillment of these desires can be realized by people, and people alone.

We want you at Delta State, whether student, professor, or researcher, to know that we are proud of the important role that you have played in building a better Mississippi in the past, and the role you are now playing in shaping the New Mississippi.

Together, let us think a New Mississippi and through the enactment of our thoughts, build a Better Mississippi.

Sincerely,

G. W. Wilkes
